Extent and medium	Approx. 3 l.m.. Bound volumes, boxes of loose papers.
Name of creator	Turnbull & Ward, Solicitors, Barrhead (and predecessors)
Administrative/ biographical history	The firm of Turnbull and Ward, and its predecessors, has been established as solicitors in Barrhead since at least 1883. The firm were previously known as Brownlie, Watson & Beckett [1883p., 1903a.]
Archival history	The bulk of these records had been stored in situ at the firm's offices at 54 Main St Barrhead, with the exception of 2016/03 which had been passed to a local history society and then on to the East Renfrewshire Culture and Leisure Trust.
Immediate source of acquisition	The records were deposited with the archives as ACC 2012/04 and 2012/05 on 17th & 24th Aug 2012. The additional deposit ACC 2016/03 was made via Mearns Library on the 1st July 2016.
Scope and content	The papers were collected in 3 deed chests, three rolls of plans, 2 framed photographic portraits, loose papers and 17 large volumes. Further deposit ACC 2016/03 comprised two plastic bags in a library book crate. This archive comprises the papers which the firm generated as part of its own business, as well as the records that they held by or on behalf of clients. The records are mostly deeds of title and associated papers, trust records, and the papers of local clubs and societies.
Appraisal, destruction and scheduling information	All records transferred to the archives have been retained.
Accruals	The firm had previously deposited other records on loan to Renfrew District, and it is presumed that these are now held by the Museum Section of Renfrewshire Council. The firm has written to RC asking that these records are now transferred to ERC.
